Today is our Diocesan Mission Collection. Funds from this appeal support three parishes and two health projects in Peru, a medical clinic for poor sugarcane workers in the Philippines, and the formation of new parish communities in India. If you forgot your envelope, you can bring it next weekend or simply write a check to Missions – Diocese of Jefferson and put it in the collection basket. Please help us share the Gospel of mercy and love to those desperately in need of both. Thank you

Parish council is organizing a Christian book loaning library. A few bookshelves are needed for the library. If you have one to donate please contact Kelly Kuda at 573-823-0564.

ST JOSEPH SCHOOL-Mrs. Michelle Hombs:

I would like to thank all the parents who helped during the school cleaning this past week. There were many jobs to do and even though we are not finished we are well on our way to being ready for the first day of school.

School Positions Open...We still have two part-time positions open for the upcoming school year....Specials Teacher for grades 1-4 and Extended Care (after school) teacher. If interested please contact me (573-721-6975) or school (492-6283). Spread the word!

Subs needed...The Early Learning Center is desperately in need of some substitutes to cover the rooms when a teacher is sick or needs the day off. There is plenty of help during the summer months due to students being on break. It is during the school year when substitutes are needed. If you or you know of someone that is available and can be put on their sub list please contact Kirsten Huff the ELC director at 573-492-6398. The kids are awful cute and the teachers would really appreciate being able to get the day off when needed. Thank you!

This year, deacons and deacon candidates, their wives, bishops and priests will be gathering in New Orleans July 22-26th to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the institution of the permanent diaconate in the United States.

More than 17,000 permanent deacons are serving in full-time ministry in the United States today—more than in any other country and nearly half of the worldwide total of 36,000 active deacons. Last year we celebrated the 40th anniversary of the institution of the permanent diaconate in the Diocese of Jefferson City. The diocese currently has 62 active deacons—5 of whom serve outside the diocese. There are also numerous deacons who have retired but continue to serve the diocese in some capacity. 150 men have been ordained for the Diocese of Jefferson since the first ordinations in 1977.

The Diocese of Jefferson City will be well-represented at the celebration in New Orleans with 40 deacons, deacon candidates and their wives attending. Bishop McKnight is one of the scheduled keynote speakers, and Deacon Frances Butel will be one of the workshop presenters. Deacon Ron & Sherri Deimeke will attend this as well. Please keep them in prayer!

Monthly Supper planned on the Second Wednesday following Mass! A monthly supper following the Wednesday 5:30 pm Mass will take the place each month to continue our connection as parish family. Last night 25 people attended the Mass and a few more joined in the supper following! The carry in dishes made for a wonderful meal and people stayed and visited until nearly 7 pm. Thanks to Mary Kay and Paul Thomas for providing a Turkey and dressing main course and for kicking off the monthly supper!

Please put August 8th on your calendar for the next one!

The Fathers of the Second Vatican Council proposed to the universal Church that the ministry of the deacon came from the Apostles and, as such, should be restored as a permanent order in the Church. Lumen Gentium declared: "The diaconate can in the future be restored as a proper and permanent rank of the hierarchy." (LG 29)

This year, deacons and deacon candidates, their wives, bishops and priests will be gathering in New Orleans July 22-26th to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the institution of the permanent diaconate in the United States.

Formally restored by Pope Paul VI in 1967, the permanent diaconate has grown steadily ever since. The Apostolic Delegate informed the bishops on August 30, 1968 that Pope Paul VI had agreed to their request; the National Conference of Catholic Bishops created a standing committee on the diaconate in November 1968.

Deacons were once again assigned to the traditional ministries of administering baptism, witnessing marriages, bringing viaticum to the dying, officiating at funerals proclaiming Sacred Scriptures, being Ordinary Ministers of Holy Communion and exhorting and instructing the people. However, charitable works of service are at the heart of the diaconate ministry. Diakonia, the Greek word from which the term "diaconate" was derived, means "service." Deacons receive Holy Orders and serve in the Persona of Christ the Servant. In fact, on their journey to the priesthood, priests receive the same Holy Orders as deacons but are called transitional deacons since they will move beyond the diaconate to the priesthood. Deacons take a promise of obedience to the bishop and work directly for him; often deacons are assigned to serve in parishes as well as in other areas of community service. Upon the death of a spouse deacons cannot remarry and must remain celibate (with rare exceptions such as having small children at home), and they do not receive a salary from the parish or diocese. Bishop McKnight addresses the reinstatement, history and direction of the diaconate in his newly published book, "Understanding the Diaconate: Historical, Theological and Sociological Foundations."
